

Chinese Courses at the Confucius Institute

Teaching from January 22nd – April 4th, 2024, the week starting 19th February is a non-teaching consolidation week.

Morning Sessions online teaching

Chinese Beginners 2 (HSK Level 1 Part 2)

The course takes place twice a week. The course requires no prior knowledge in Chinese and it aims to provide you with a basic knowledge of the Chinese economy, aspects of contemporary Chinese human relations and behaviour. It will also provide you with a basic knowledge of the Chinese language that is used commonly in the business environment and how to read simple business documents in Chinese. Students are expected to have mastered 70-80 commonly used Chinese characters and will know how to use some very simple Chinese expressions. Chinese Beginners 1 and Chinese Beginners 2 courses will assist the students to prepare for HSK 1 exam. The course takes place twice a week.

Evening Sessions in person teaching

Chinese speaking corner (Beginner and Post-beginner Corner on Tuesdays

Intermediate Corner on Wednesdays)

This activity is a tutors-led Chinese oral practice session in the format of role play on a range of topics such as introducing yourself and your family, asking for directions, discussion about your hobbies, talk about university life, discussing about a wide range of interesting topics. The teachers provide some useful expressions for each topic of the week at the start of the session and do a demonstration. The participants will be invited to take up a role and practise. The teachers will provide assistance to facilitate the conversation as required. There are two sessions each week. Tuesday sessions suits participants at beginners and post-beginners level. Wednesday sessions suit intermediate level learners.
